THREE RURAL W.I.'s MEET IN IRMA

Over thirty ladies spent a very pleasant afternoon Tuesday, April 13, when the Buffalo Coulee, Battle River, and Strawberry Plains W.I.'s held a joint meeting. Buffalo Coulee's president, Mrs. Ted Prior, took the chair and called for the usual opening, followed by a sing-song, Mrs. Clark Steele sang, accompanied by Mrs. W. Patterson and two contests were given by Mrs. Eddie Jackson and Mrs. H. Bax. Mrs. Prior then called on Mrs. Pert Prosser to give her report on the District Conference held in Edmonton last month. This report was extremely interesting and stressed the need for many more W.I. members to attend these conferences to hear at first hand of the work being done, and yet to be done. Mrs. Prosser told of hearing speakers on Cancer, Arthritis, the ACNW Conference, Canadian Association of Consumers and others. Guest speakers at the Conference had been Dr. and Mrs. Bentley, recently returned from Ceylon. Further singing and a beautiful lunch closed the afternoon.

Everyone felt that this meeting had been a step in the right direction. We had been given much to think about and had met with other W.I. members from all around the Irma area.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Sarah's Choice

By Frank N. Pickford

FOR 40 years I've been running my own store. Keep most anything small-town folk need, from lamp-ticks to refrigerators. It's an easy-going, unexciting occupation; but there are times when something happens you like to tell the missus about when you go home nights. About Sarah Huggins and her no-good husband, for instance.

It was a Monday afternoon when Sarah and Josh came in. That was unusual because Sarah was a hard-working woman. They were all dressed up, too.

But Sarah looked older than her 30 years. Sometimes, when I've been late at the store, I've seen her on her knees, sleeves rolled up, a battered old bucket by her side, scrubbing away at the bank entrance as if her life depended on it. That's how she makes a living for herself and that useless husband of hers. She's been doing it for nearly 15 years.

Josh had a clean shirt on for once and was sober. Usually when you meet him it's late at night and he's rolling home like a ship without a rudder. It always makes me mad to see him that way. I've tried talking to him; pleaded with Sarah not to let him have the money, but it makes no difference. I'll admit she's a likeable cuss, not a mean streak in him, but as lazy as a Sunday afternoon. And a sucker for any one with a ticket to sell.

I was busy with a customer when they came in. Josh looked kind of pleased with himself as they went around looking at this and that. Sarah would look up at him and smile, and he'd squeeze her arm and a look of pride would come into her eyes. They were just like a couple of young folk about to start housekeeping, and somehow you forgot Josh was a loafer and his wife a woman who scrubbed floors all day.

And when I was through with my customer I went toward 'em. I heard Josh say, with a sweep of his arm: "... whatever you want Honey. Just you pick it out 'an' it's yours, anything in the whole blamed store."

While she was making up her mind, Josh and I talked.

"I ain't never been good," he said, with an unusual light in his eyes, "an' I've ails wanted to do things for Sarah if I ever had money enough. Now I have. Three thousand bucks of it. Yes, sir, three thousand bucks!" He repeated the words as if he could not realize it himself. "Sarah was ails after me for buying sweepstake tickets, but this time it paid off. Got 'em Saturday. Yes, sir, three thousand bucks! Sarah ain't got used to the idea yet. Never was one to spend much. Never had it to spend till now. I ails pleased her that if ever I did come by a lot of money, we'd come right down here an' I'd buy her anything she wanted, anything at all."

I suppose I should have been mad at him but I wasn't. I was too interested in Sarah and in what she would choose. Most women would have taken a refrigerator. But not Sarah. She ran her eyes over the gleaming white enamel, opened the door and looked inside, pursed her lips, slowly shook her head and passed it by. She examined other articles. The strangeness of plenty seemed to overwhelm her.

She put down a bolt of dress material with a sigh of indecision. Her eyes roved and came to rest on the hardware.

"You can buy me that, Josh," she said, her face alight. "That's what I've wanted for a long time. That bucket and squeegee now. Now I won't have to go down on my knees any more."

Irrigation To Provide More Farms

WINNIPEG.—Approximately 500,000 acres of drought land which has been approved as suitable for irrigation in the multi-million dollar South Saskatchewan river development project may some day attract more than ten times its present population.

George Spence of Regina, the Canadian representative on the International Joint Commission in charge of water resources, told members of the Manitoba Geographical Society recently that the scheme, along with the project for the Red Deer division in Alberta, has not yet been approved. "It is estimated that a total of 3,000,000 acres can ultimately be irrigated in the two Prairie provinces," Mr. Spence said.

TURKEY PROBLEM
NEW WESTMINSTER.—President Jack Wood of the B.C. Turkey Breeders' Association said out-rate imports from the United States are hurting the Canadian market. He pointed out the problem extends to prairie grain growers, estimating every imported bird represented at least 100 pounds of unsold Canadian wheat.

MOTORISTS MUST SIGNAL WHEN MAKING TURNS

REGINA.—Saskatchewan motorists were reminded by J. A. Christie, Chairman of the Highway Traffic Board of a recent amendment of the Vehicles Act.

Under this amendment motorists must not only signal when intending to make a right or left turn or to stop, but must signal continuously for a sufficient distance before making the turn or stopping, to warn traffic.

Mr. Christie pointed out that many motorists are still giving signals just prior to turning or stopping, without giving those following, sufficient warning as to their intentions.

In the early days, charcoal was used for the smelting of iron and serious damage to many forests resulted by heavy cutting to produce it.

Mrs. P. O. McIntyre of the Victoria Curling Club, Winnipeg, one of the three delegates from Manitoba, was elected President of the Western Canada Ladies' Curling Association at the annual meeting held March 15th at the McLaughlin Hotel, Edmonton, Alta. Following the finals of the T. Eaton Co. Western Canada Playdowns held at Edmonton March 15-17th, Mrs. D. F. McKenzie, of Vancouver, B.C., was elected vice-president.

The 1955 Eaton Western Canada Playdowns will be held in Winnipeg and plans are already under way for this event.

Mrs. Harold Galtner, of Edmonton, entertained the visiting rinks and delegates at a Smorgasbord at her home. The annual meeting and election of officers completed the very successful playdowns.

Alberta Mustard Crop Said World's Largest

Between 35,000 and 50,000 acres is being sown to commercial mustard in southern Alberta each year. Lettbridge claims the distinction of handling more mustard than any other center in the world. Net returns from mustard over a long period of years are about the same as those from wheat. The market for this crop is limited and almost all mustard is grown under contract.

Cigars were first made commercially about 1840.

The LOBA is holding a Military Whist in the Legion Hall on April 24 at 8:30 p.m. Admission 50c. Lunch will be served.

There will be a W.A. Tea and Bake Sale in the Legion Hall on Saturday, April 24.

A further donation to the Protestant Home for Children in memory of the late Mr. Olaf Lovig has been received from Mr. and Mrs. C. Olsen.

The W.A. ladies are most pleased with the result of their campaign for raising funds by means of small garments sent out with packets to contain pennies for the waitresses of the various recipients. The waistline money was very generous indeed. The W.A. ladies believe it was the hearts of the donors that were large and not the waistlines.

Congratulations to Miss Regina Knowles, daughter of Mr. Thos. Knowles of Uman and former resident of the Sunny Brae district, who graduated as a nurse last week from the Royal Alex hospital in Edmonton.

Holiday coin bags are being distributed throughout the district. All ladies who receive these are invited to a tea to be held next spring.

The next meeting of the United Church YPU will be held on Sunday, April 25 instead of the 13. Please note this change in date.

The W.I. ladies are sponsoring the Cancer Campaign again this year and will be canvassing Irma some time during this month. The W.I. members give of their time to this good work and turn the entire proceeds over to the Cancer Society where it is used in research.

Mrs. Adam Miles is home from the Wainwright hospital and is feeling much better.

Little Jeanette Torrance is now a hospital patient with a bad cold. We could almost call this column "Hospital Notes" this week. We wish all our Irma folk who are ill a speedy and complete recovery.

TREATING SEED

The time of the year has now arrived for farmers to think of treating their seed to avoid losses from smut and some other diseases. Mercurial compounds are the order of the day. These compounds control certain diseases and some have an effect on wireworms. Some of them must not be used with oats, barley and licor. Farmers should make particular inquiries about these compounds.

Jarrow News

Despite the blustery wintry members and two visitors met at the home of Mrs. G. Bridgeman. At the March meeting it was decided that the members either working single or in groups make scrap books, the same to be given to the nearby hospitals to furnish enjoyment and entertainment for the children. Three were already completed and were taken to the Viking hospital. Topics under Christian Citizenship were discussed and it was suggested that we look into the comforts for older people, etc. A delicious lunch served by the hostesses Mrs. Beer and Mrs. G. Bridgeman brought a pleasant afternoon to a close.

Little Jeanette Meakins has returned to the Viking hospital after spending a few days at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Holt and family were visitors in the city for a few days this week. Clifford came back with them.

Easter Service will be conducted at the Jarrow Church on Easter Sunday, April 18 at 3 p.m. The Irma Choir will be here to share their Easter music with us. Let's all turn out to hear the service and enjoy the special music.

Mr. DuRocher spent the week-end in the city.

Mrs. O. Lovig is a patient at the Hardisty hospital.

Error in spelling — our congratulations last week should have read — congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Rawluk on the birth of a daughter — and not Rawleigh.
